

04/10/2019

Dear: Ta, Tuyet

We are pleased to confirm this At-Will Offer of Employment to you. Your tentative start date will be on 04/26/2019. Veterans Sourcing Group shall pay you for all services rendered at a(n) hourly rate of 30.00 per hour for each hour worked and approved as worked by Client. This offer is contingent on the successful completion of our screening process, including, but not limited to, background checks, reference checks, criminal checks, and drug/alcohol screening. If the outcome of these checks is not satisfactory, this offer may be rescinded and/or employment terminated. Your initial project assignment will be with Veterans Sourcing Group's client Boeing located in 7701 14th Ave S, Seattle WA, 98108-3517 in a Full-Time capacity. As you are aware, acceptance of your work by our Client and your compliance with Veterans Sourcing Group's policies and procedures is a condition of continued employment. You will complete all employment documents that you are required to complete and sign. If you foresee any difficulty complying with this requirement, please contact me for assistance. Please note that this offer letter shall not be confused as a contract of employment for any fixed term, and is strictly "At-Will".

By Accepting and joining Veterans Sourcing Group, you are taking the first step in what we hope will be the beginning of a long and rewarding relationship.

Very truly yours,

Veterans Sourcing Group

Daniel Liebman

Daniel Liebman, President

I agree and accept the terms and conditions of this offer letter. By accepting this offer of employment, I acknowledge that there are no agreements or arrangements in effect with a previous employer that would prevent me from accepting employment as set forth above.
